1 Definitions

Accident or Accidental means an external, sudden, short-term, unintentional, not being a result of a disease or its Treatment, unforeseen concurrence of circumstances, which occurred while coverage is in effect for the Insured Person, where against the will of an Insured Person his/her health is damaged or he/she dies. Accidents among other things include but are not limited to the following: illegal actions of third parties (including Terrorist Attack), an attempt of rescue of people or freight in peril; inhalation of gas or vapor, as well as absorption of poisoning or aggressive substances; disruptions and damage of muscles caused by a spurt; frostbite; drowning.

Assistance Service means a third-party administrator appointed by the Policyholder to provide claims handling services under this Policy.

Alcohol or Drug Abuse means any pattern of pathological use of alcohol or drug that cause impairment in social or occupational functioning, or that produces psychological dependency evidenced by physical tolerance or by physical symptoms when it is withdrawn.

Baggage/Luggage: Travel bags, suitcases, trunks, and their contents, excluding the clothes the Insured Person is wearing. Valuables and Precious objects, as defined below, are classed as luggage:

a. Valuables:

Sports equipment, cameras, photography, film, or computer equipment and mobile phones, sound or image recording or production equipment and their accessories.

b. Precious objects:

Jewellery, watches, furs, precious metals, precious and semi-precious stones, and pearls when mounted in jewellery.

Child(ren) means Your natural Child, adopted Child (or Child placed in Your home for purposes of adoption), foster Child, stepchild, or other Child for whom You have legal guardianship (proof will be required). A Child must reside with You in a parent-Child relationship. In the event You share physical custody of the Child with another parent, the requirement that the Child reside with You will be waived.

Chronic Condition or a Chronic Disease means a disease, a consequence of Injury or medical condition that causes irreversible pathological changes, which has 2 or more of the following characteristics:

- a. it has no known recognized cure, or after a course of Treatment it comes back or is likely to come back;
- b. it is permanent (continues indefinitely);
- c. it requires long-term monitoring, consultations, check-ups, examinations, or tests, or taking drugs regularly;
- d. the Insured Person needs to be rehabilitated or specially trained to cope with it.

For the sake of clarity, the term "Chronic Disease" includes any kind of cancer or tumor.

Congenital means a physical abnormality or condition that is present at birth, whether inherited or caused by the environment.

Covered Expense means Eligible Benefit.

Deductible means the dollar amount of Eligible Expenses which must be incurred and paid by You before benefits are payable under this Policy. It applies separately to You. If the Provider sends us invoice for services including those subjects to the Deductible, We reserve the right to pay it, but then You must reimburse us the amount of the Deductible.

Doctor or Legally Qualified Physician or Surgeon means a person who is a qualified practitioner of medicine. As such, he or she must be acting within the scope of his/her license under the laws in the jurisdiction in which he or she practices and providing only those medical services which are within the scope of his/her license or certificate. It does not include You or a Your Family Member or Relative.

Drugs/Prescription Drugs means: 1) prescription legend drugs; 2) compound medications of which at least one ingredient is a prescription legend drug; 3) any other drugs which under the applicable state or federal law may be dispensed only upon written prescription of a Doctor; and 4) injectable insulin. However, “over-the-counter” medicines like Aspirin, vitamins, cold remedies (for nose relief, cold and flu), homeopathic drugs and herbs, lifestyle products, vitamins, food additives, dietary products, and any experimental drugs are excluded, even if prescribed by a Doctor.

The Doctor’s prescription (recipes) for a Drug should contain the following details:

- a. Doctor’s First and Family Name or Out-Patient Clinic name, address, and phone number;
- b. Prescription date;
- c. Patient’s full name, age;
- d. Drug name or instruction for its production (finished pharmaceutical product or indication to pharmacy to make it extemporaneously);
- e. Prescription deadline (indicated by the Doctor). If the prescription deadline is not specified or not established by applicable local regulations, then it will be deemed that the prescription is valid for 1 month from the prescription date;
- f. Doctor’s signature;
- g. Personal Doctor seal (if available);
- h. Pharmacy/Drug Provider seal (if available).

Eligible Benefit(s) means benefits payable by the Insurer to reimburse expenses which are for Medically Necessary Services, Supplies, care, or Treatment; due to Illness or Injury; prescribed, performed or ordered by a Doctor; Reasonable and Customary Charges; incurred within the Insurance Period, and which do not exceed the Sum Insured.

Eligible Expenses means the Reasonable and Customary Charges for Services or Supplies which are incurred by You for the Medically Necessary Treatment of an Injury or Illness. Eligible Expenses must be incurred within the Insurance Period.

Emergency means an Illness or Injury for which You seek immediate Medical Treatment at the nearest available facility. The condition must be one which manifests itself by acute symptoms which are sufficiently severe (including severe pain) that, without immediate medical care, a prudent layperson possessing an average knowledge of health and medicine would reasonably expect that failure to receive immediate medical attention would cause:

- a. His life or health would be in serious jeopardy, or, with respect to a pregnant woman, serious jeopardy to the health of the woman or her unborn Child;
- b. His bodily functions would be seriously impaired; or
- c. A body organ or part would be seriously damaged.

Emergency Treatment means Medical Treatment for a Medical Emergency that is required for the immediate relief of an acute symptom or that, according to the Doctor’s opinion, cannot be delayed until Your return to Your Home Country.

Emergency Medical Evacuation / Transportation means: a) medical condition that warrants immediate transportation from the place where You are located (due to inadequate medical facilities) to the nearest adequate medical facility where Medical Treatment can be obtained; or b) after being treated at a local medical facility, the medical condition warrants transportation with a qualified medical attendant to Your Home Country to obtain further Medical Treatment or to recover; or c) both a) and b) above.

- c. Provides 24-hour nursing service by registered nurses (R.N.) on duty or call;
- d. Has a staff of one or more licensed Doctors available at all times;
- e. Provides organized facilities for diagnosis, treatment, and surgery, either
- f. on its premises; or
- g. in facilities available to it, on a pre-arranged basis;
- h. Is not primarily a nursing care facility, rest home, convalescent home or similar establishment, or any separate ward, wing or section of a Hospital used as such; and
- i. Is not a place for drug addicts, alcoholics or the aged.

Hospital also includes tax-supported institutions, which are not required to maintain surgical facilities. Hospital does not include a place, special ward, floor, or other accommodation used for custodial or educational care; rest; the aged; a nursing home or an institution mainly rendering Treatment or Services for Mental Illness or Substance Abuse, except as specifically stated.

Hospital Stay means a Medically Necessary overnight confinement in a Hospital when room and board and general nursing care are provided for which a per diem charge is made by the Hospital.

Host Country means any country visited by You during the Insurance Period, other than the country where You have Your true, fixed, and permanent home and principal establishment.

Membership Card means the card we issue to You with essential information about Your insurance. The card is our property and is not transferable to another person. Possession of such card in no way verifies that an individual is eligible for, or covered under, this Policy.

Illness means a sickness, disorder, Illness, pathology, abnormality, malady, morbidity, affliction, disability, defect, handicap, deformity, birth defect, Congenital defect, symptomatology, syndrome, malaise, infection, infirmity, ailment, disease of any kind, or any other medical, physical or health condition, provided, however, that Illness does not include learning disabilities, or attitudinal or disciplinary problems. All Illnesses that exist simultaneously or which arise subsequent to a prior Illness, and which directly or indirectly relate to or result or arise from the same or related causes or as a consequence thereof or from one another are considered to be one Illness. Further, if a subsequent Illness results or arises from causes or consequences that are the same as or related to the causes or consequences of a prior Illness, the subsequent Illness will be deemed to be a continuation of the prior Illness and not a separate Illness. Any complication or any condition arising out of an Illness for which the You is being treated or has received Treatment will be considered as part of the original Illness.

Injury means bodily harm resulting, directly and independently of disease or bodily infirmity, from an Accident. All injuries to the same person sustained in one Accident, including all related conditions and recurring symptoms of injuries will be considered one Injury.

In-Network Provider means any health care Provider who, at the time covered Services are rendered to You, is under contract with Us to participate as an In-Network Provider for Services or as a Preferred Provider included in the panel of Providers designated by Us as Preferred Providers for Your specific plan.

- a. Required, necessary and appropriate for the diagnosis or Treatment of an Illness or Injury; and
- b. Prescribed or ordered by a Doctor or furnished by a Hospital; and
- c. Performed in the least costly setting required by the condition; and
- d. Consistent with the medical and surgical practices prevailing in the area for Treatment of the condition at the time rendered;
- e. Not excessive in scope, duration, or intensity to provide safe and adequate, and appropriate Treatment.

When specifically applied to Hospital confinement, it means that the diagnosis or Treatment of symptoms or a condition cannot be safely provided without the patient's stay overnight.

Note:

- a. The purchasing or renting air conditioners, air purifiers, motorized transportation equipment, escalators or elevators in private homes, swimming pools or supplies for them, and general exercise equipment are not considered Medically Necessary. A Service or Supply may not be Medically Necessary if a less intensive or more appropriate diagnostic or Treatment alternative could have been used. We may consider the cost of the alternative to be the Eligible Expense.
- b. The fact that any particular Doctor may prescribe, order, recommend, or approve a Service, Supply, or level of care does not, of itself, make such Treatment Medically Necessary or make the charge a Covered Expense under this Policy.
- c. A Treatment, drug, device, Procedure, Supply or Service shall not be considered as Medically Necessary if it:
 1. Is Experimental/Investigational or for research purposes;
 2. Is provided for education purposes or the convenience of You or Your Family Members, Doctor, Hospital, or any other Service Provider;
 3. Exceeds in scope, duration, or intensity that level of care that is needed to provide safe, adequate, and appropriate diagnosis or Treatment and where ongoing Treatment is merely for maintenance or preventive care;

4. Could have been omitted without adversely affecting the person's condition or the quality of medical care;
5. Involves the use of a medical device, drug or substance not formally approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration; or
6. Can be safely provided to the patient on a less cost-effective basis by a different medical professional, or pursuant to a more conservative form of Treatment.

Upon request, it can be issued an Individual Insurance Certificate confirming Your enrollment.

2 Eligibility Conditions

- 2.1 All non-US citizens who are students, visiting faculty, scholars, au-pairs, attending language schools, or participating in linguistic stays, homestays or other similar programs, age 6 or older who are temporarily residing outside their Home Country and are engaged in Full-Time Educational or Research Activities in the United States and have a valid J-1, H, F, M or Q visa or similar appropriate visa (“Eligible Individuals”) are eligible for coverage under this Policy; provided, however, the such persons must remain engaged in Full-Time Educational or Research Activities outside their Home Country during the Insurance Period.
- 2.2 We retain the right to investigate eligibility status and attendance records to verify eligibility requirements are met. If We discover the eligibility requirements are not met, Your insurance automatically terminates.
- 2.3 For students under the age of 18, the parent or legal guardian of the student must complete the documentation with the applicable sponsoring organization as follows:
 - a. Parental Authorization Form completed and signed by the Parent or the legal guardian.
 - b. Vaccination agreement.
 - c. Student-Parent Agreement Form completed and signed by the Student and the Parent or legal guardian.
 - d. Student application completed and signed by the Student and the Parent or the legal guardian.
 - e. Student behavior agreement.

For students under the age of 18, the parent or legal guardian is required to sign the application and purchase the policy on behalf of the student.

3 Insurance Period

3.1 Your Insurance is effective on the latest of:

- The Effective Date of the Policy; or
- The date the Insurer receives a completed application or enrollment form; or
- The moment You depart from Your Home Country airspace, provided full Premium due has been paid.

3.2 Your Insurance will end on the earliest of:

- The date You are no longer an Eligible Individual; or
- The date You return to Your Home Country; or
- The expiration of 364 days from the Effective Date of coverage; or
- The date shown on the Individual Insurance Certificate or Membership Card issued by the Policyholder; or
- The date the You become a permanent resident of the United States.

3.3 Additional Insurance Period

You may apply for a new Insurance Period, subject to the review and approval of the Policyholder. This option is available as long as You continue to meet the eligibility requirements. It is important to note that rates and benefits may change for each subsequent Insurance Period. Extension requests must be received within five (5) days of expiry of the current Insurance Period. Coverage may be purchased for up to additional 366 days at a time. Prevailing rates will apply at the time of the request (not to be combined with any other policy to exceed this limit). When considering possible subsequent claims, the original Policy Effective Date will be used with regards to determine any Pre-Existing Conditions.

4 Premium Provisions

4.1 Premiums:

The Insurer provides insurance in return for payment of insurance premiums which it quotes for each Participating Organization, Schedule of Benefits, and individual period of insurance. Premium due dates are the first of every month unless otherwise stated in the Policy. Premium payment made in advance or for more than a one-month period will not affect any provisions of the Policy with regard to change.

4.2 Grace Period:

A grace period of 31 days is granted for each premium due after the first premium due date. Coverage will stay in force during this period provided the Policyholder or the Participating Organization pays all the premiums due by the last day of the grace period, unless notice has been sent, in accordance with the TERMINATION provision, of the intent to terminate coverage under the Policy. Coverage will end if the premium is not paid by the end of the grace period.

4.3 Insurance Premium Refunds:

If You decide to cancel this Policy, You can do so within 28 days of receipt of the Policy and will receive full credit for the Insurance Premium You've paid, provided You have not started Your journey and no claim under this Policy has occurred. If the Participating Organization wants to cancel an Insured's Policy after this period or after the Insured has started his/her journey, they will receive a credit for the percentage of the Insurance Premium paid calculated on a pro-rata basis equivalent to the period of cover left unused provided that no claims have been made. If a claim has been made, or there has been an incident which may lead to a claim, the Insurer will not credit any Insurance Premium.

5 Medical Insurance & Assistance

5.1 Scope of Coverage

- 5.1.1 We will pay the Eligible Expenses incurred as a result of Your Illness or Injury, subject to the limits and Deductibles set forth in the Table of Benefits and subject to conditions and exclusions specified elsewhere in this Policy, provided all of the following conditions are met:
- Eligible Expenses are incurred for any of the Services mentioned in the Table of Benefits;
 - the Accident resulted in Injury took place within the Insurance Period (if the claim is in connection with accidental body injuries), or the Illness was first ever diagnosed, or a Chronic Disease suddenly turned to an acute stage or suddenly resulted in a complication within the Insurance Period (if the claim is in connection with an illness);
 - You must be under the care of a Doctor when the Eligible Expenses are incurred;
 - The initial Treatment of an Injury or Illness must occur within thirty (30) days of the date of Injury or onset of Illness.

The medical benefits payable under this Policy are subject to the specific limits shown on the Table of Benefits. All coverages and costs listed in the Table of Benefits are in US Dollar amounts.

5.1.2 The benefits enumerated herein will in no event include any amounts that are in excess of Reasonable and Customary Charges. If the charge incurred is in excess of the Reasonable and Customary charge, such excess amount will not be recognized as an Eligible Expense. All charges will be deemed to be incurred on the date of such Services or Supplies, which give rise to the expense or charge, are rendered, or obtained.

5.1.3 We will provide the benefits described in this Policy to all Insured Persons for all Eligible Benefits set forth in the Description of Benefits section of this Policy. Medical expenses in respect of a Treatment of an acute disease shall be covered by this Insurance till Your recovery unless it appears to be a symptom of a Chronic Disease.

A Chronic Disease (whether pre-existing or first ever diagnosed while this insurance is in force) is excluded from this insurance coverage, unless the Chronic Disease suddenly turns to an acute stage or results in a complication; then this insurance will only cover pain relief and medical manipulations to eliminate immediate threat to the life of the Insured Person, sub-limited to 25.000,00 (Twenty five thousand) US-dollars, while subsequent (long-term) treatment/care is excluded from this insurance. The immediate threat means that without medical intervention within the nearest 48 hours, the Insured Person may die, according to the consensus opinion of the attending Doctor and that of a Doctor appointed by the Assistance Service.

5.2 Preliminary Authorization Requirement

5.2.1 Reimbursement of certain expenses incurred in certain circumstances can be claimed only if relevant Treatment or Service has been pre-authorized by the Assistance Service. You or Your attending Doctor or Your legal representative shall always be obliged to obtain preliminary authorization by the Assistance Service in any of the following situations:

- a. Medical evacuation or repatriation;
- b. Hospitalization or Day-Care Treatment, or the undergoing of Day-Surgery;
- c. any medical procedure, involving general anesthesia;
- d. preoperative examination of the Insured Person;
- e. Home visit by a Doctor;
- f. Nursing at home (when the Insured Person requires more than 4 nurse visits);
- g. Out-patient Treatment if its cost will likely exceed the equivalent of 5 hundred USD;
- h. any medical condition for which Treatment cost will likely exceed the equivalent of 5 thousand USD;
- i. Treatment in connection with a Chronic Disease or with a Pre-existing Condition;
- j. Burial.

5.2.2 You, Your Doctor, or Your legal representative shall complete Preliminary Authorization Form available from the Assistance Service and do so at least 5 calendar days prior to the expected date of the applicable event requiring pre-authorization, except for cases of Medical Emergency admission to a Hospital or a Doctor's home visit. The Preliminary Authorization Form or the equivalent notice shall contain the following information:

- a. diagnosis;
- b. description of required Treatment;
- c. name and address of the Hospital where You are recommended by Your Doctor to undergo the Treatment;
- d. expected duration of Hospital stay;
- e. expected costs of the Treatment.

- 5.2.3 If the above pre-authorization requirement is not fulfilled, the Assistance Service reserves the right to reduce the Benefit to the amount of Usual, Customary, and Reasonable expenses and charges for Treatment and assistance in normal circumstances, but not by more than 25 percent. However, if un-pre-authorized Treatment or service appears not Medically Necessary, then no reimbursement of relevant expenses can be claimed.
- 5.2.4 In case of Emergency Medical Evacuation or Hospitalization in a situation of Medical Emergency, pre-authorization requirement can be replaced by post-authorization requirement, meaning that the Insured Person or Policyholder or their authorized representatives must inform the Assistance Service of such event (by phone, e-mail, or post with the notice of delivery) as soon as possible in given circumstances, but not later than 48 hours after the Insured Person's admission to the Hospital.

5.3 Providers Network

- 5.3.1 In order to be covered, certain Services must be rendered by an In-Network Provider designated solely by Us, except when such Services are Emergency Services for the Treatment of an Emergency medical condition. The Services that must be rendered by those In-Network Providers for the Treatment of certain medical conditions (which are only eligible if you have been approved for coverage for the Treatment of these medical conditions), are as follows:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 1. Amputations | 8. End stage renal disease |
| 2. Cancers | 9. Hemophilia |
| 3. Cardiovascular conditions | 10. Immune system deficiencies |
| 4. Cerebrovascular conditions (CVA, Stroke) | 11. Major burns-3rd degree |
| 5. Chronic respiratory conditions | 12. Major head Injuries |
| 6. Coma | 13. Multiple fractures and/or trauma |
| 7. Diabetes | 14. Multiple Sclerosis |
| | 15. Neurological disorders |

Note: This list is not all inclusive and is intended only as a guide.

- 5.3.2 Please contact the Assistance Service via the telephone number on your Membership Card or via email at oneteamhealth@dhig.net if your medical condition corresponds to the above listed cases. Utilizing an In-Network Provider does not guarantee benefits or that the treating facility will directly bill the Assistance Service.
- 5.3.3 You may also contact Assistance Service to determine the most suitable location to obtain Services based on:
- Your location;
 - Nature of symptom and signs; and
 - Possible Emergency or urgency of Your needs.

5.4 Additional Conditions Applicable under Inpatient Treatment Benefit

- 5.4.1 Elective Surgery which can be postponed until Your return to Your Home Country, is not covered by this insurance.
- 5.4.2 Upon admission to the Hospital, You should present Your Insurance Membership Card and provide any additional information required by the Hospital in order to be admitted.
- 5.4.3 Reimbursement of costs of utilizing a hospital emergency room for non-Emergency care is subject to the Deductible specified in the Table of Benefits.
- 5.4.4 Only such expenses which are specifically enumerated in the following list of charges and incurred within thirty (30) days from the date of the Accident or onset of the Illness, and which are not excluded may be considered Eligible Expenses:
- a. Charges made by a Hospital for room and board, floor nursing and other Services inclusive of charges for professional Services and with the exception of personal services of a non-medical nature; provided, however, that such expenses do not exceed the Hospital's average charge for semi-private room and board accommodations.
 - b. Charges made for Intensive Care Unit and nursing services.
 - c. Charges made for diagnosis, Treatment and Surgery by a Doctor. Note: Surgery that is not prescribed by the Surgeon and which is not performed by the Surgeon within ten (10) days of the Accident or the diagnosis of the Illness, is not considered an Emergency.
 - d. Charges made for an operating room.
 - e. Charges made for the cost and administration of anesthetics.
 - f. Charges for medication, x-ray services, laboratory tests and Services, the use of radium and radioactive isotopes, oxygen, blood, transfusions, iron lungs, and Medical Treatment.
 - g. Charges for physiotherapy if recommended by a Doctor for the Treatment of a specific Disablement and administered by a licensed physiotherapist (if covered under your plan).
 - h. Dressings, drugs, and medicines that can only be obtained upon a written prescription of a Doctor or Surgeon.
 - i. Cosmetic Surgery prescribed by a plastic Surgeon resulting from a covered Accident (not Illness) in an amount not to exceed 17,000 USD. The benefit amount will be determined by the Assistance Service, at its sole discretion.
 - j. Emergency local transportation to or from the nearest Hospital or to and from the nearest Hospital with facilities for required Treatment. Such transportation shall be by licensed ground ambulance within the metropolitan area in which You are located at that time the Service is used. If You are in a rural area, then licensed air ambulance transportation to the nearest metropolitan area may be considered an Eligible Expense up to the Sum Insured.
If Surgery is necessary for You to carry out Your normal activities, but not because of Medical Emergency, the Assistance Service, in its sole discretion, may offer You return to Your Home Country for the Surgical Procedure and for all necessary rehabilitation (coverable however until Policy Expiry Date only); In such case, the benefits payable will include the cost of roundtrip economy airfare which must be used within three (3) months from the date of the Surgeon's order and within the program. Failure to accept the Insurer's offer will release the Insurer from liability to pay Your medical expenses incurred in the Host Country.
 - k. In the event Your Hospital Stay is longer than the Insurance Period under the Policy, the Insurer will only cover the medical expenses beyond the original Insurance Period if:
 - You purchase additional coverage (prolong duration of the original Insurance Period) in accordance with this Policy;
 - for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days; and
 - for the sole purpose of covering Medical Treatment to eliminate immediate threat to Your life and to stabilize Your medical condition (no additional coverage / prolongation of the original Insurance Period is available for an unrelated Illness, complications, or a secondary diagnosis).

If Your Insurance Period is not prolonged, the Insurer has the option, in its sole discretion, to offer You to return to Your Home Country (where subsequent treatment will not be covered by this insurance). Failure to prolong the Insurance Period will release the Insurer from liability to pay Your medical expenses incurred in the Host Country.

5.5 Additional Conditions Applicable under Inpatient Mental Illness Benefit

- 5.5.1 Only such expenses, incurred as the result of Treatment or medication from the onset of Mental Illness as an Inpatient, which are specifically enumerated in the following list of charges, and which are not excluded, may be considered as Covered Expenses:
- a. Charges made by a Hospital or mental institution for room and board, floor nursing and other services inclusive of charges for professional services and with exception of personal services of a non-medical nature, provided, however; that expenses do not exceed the Hospital's or mental institution's average charge for semi-private room and board accommodation.
 - b. Charges made for diagnosis and Treatment by a Doctor.
 - c. Charges made for the cost and administration of anesthetics.
 - d. Charges for medication, x-ray services, laboratory tests and services, oxygen, and Medical Treatment.
 - e. Drugs and medicines that can only be obtained upon a written prescription from Doctor.
- 5.5.2 Mental Illness must first manifest itself during the Insurance Period.
- 5.5.3 This benefit must be approved by the Assistance Service. Failure to utilize the Assistance Service to arrange for these Services will result in the denial of benefits.

5.6 Additional Conditions Applicable under Physiotherapy and Chiropractic Benefit

- 5.6.1 Benefits shall be paid for physiotherapy which is prescribed by a Doctor and administered by a licensed physiotherapist. Chiropractic Services may be covered if prescribed by a Doctor to relieve pain and accompanied by the proper x-rays and other images that need to be taken in order to confirm such Services are Medically Necessary. The Assistance Service will allow for three (3) sessions without a Treatment plan. Any additional sessions beyond the initial three (3) sessions are subject to a Treatment plan indicating the frequencies and duration by the Doctor.
- 5.6.2 This benefit must be approved by the Assistance Service. Failure to utilize the Assistance Service to arrange for these Services will result in the denial of benefits.

5.7 Additional Conditions Applicable under Emergency Dental (Pain Relief) Benefit

- 5.7.1 This Policy may pay for Emergency Treatment for the relief of pain to Sound Natural Teeth or infection of the gums. Any follow-up treatment may be covered up to a maximum amount of 100 USD. All dental claims must include an x-ray of the concerned tooth/gum. X-rays will be reimbursed at the customary cost charged in the geographic area where the dentist who provided the dental care is located.
- 5.7.2 This benefit must be approved by the Assistance Service. Failure to utilize the Assistance Service to arrange for these Services will result in the denial of benefits.
- 5.7.3 Exclusions specific for this benefit:
- a. You are not covered if you break a tooth while eating or biting into a foreign object.
 - b. No coverage is provided for claims submitted without the mandatory x-ray film.
 - c. No coverage is provided for routine dental examinations, Pre-Existing Conditions, including, but not limited to cavities, restorative work, orthodontics, dental equipment, crown build up, crowns, reconstructive work, or all other Treatments unrelated to pain alleviation.

5.8 Additional Conditions Applicable under Dental (Accident) Benefit

- 5.8.1 This Policy may pay for Services of a dentist or oral surgeon for Emergency Treatment of Sound Natural Teeth as the result of a covered Accident (only those Injuries caused by external contact with a foreign object are covered). In addition, Emergency Treatment for orthodontic Services will also be provided resulting from an Accident; provided, however, if the orthodontic treatment is not performed in the Host Country due to Your condition or age within thirty (30) days from the date of the Accident, this Policy will be secondary to any other health benefit plan in Your Home Country.
- 5.8.2 This benefit must be approved by the Assistance Service. Failure to utilize the Assistance Service to arrange for these Services will result in the denial of benefits.
- 5.8.3 Exclusions specific for this benefit: broken or chipped teeth, loosened or lost filings/ amalgams while eating, chewing, and biting are not, at any time, considered an Accident or a result of an Accident under the terms of this Policy.

5.9 Additional Conditions Applicable under Emergency Medical Evacuation Benefit

- 5.9.1 In the event of Emergency, when appropriate Medical Treatment is not available locally, this Policy provides Emergency Medical Transportation to the closest medical Provider capable of providing the required care. Should Treatment be available locally, but You choose to be treated elsewhere, transportation expenses to another Provider, even if the Provider is approved by the Assistance Service, shall be Your responsibility.
- 5.9.2 In the event of Emergency, the Assistance Service reserves the right to determine itself the medical Provider to which You shall be transported, and the means of transportation. If You choose not to be treated at the Provider arranged by the Assistance Service, then You become responsible for the arrangement of Your medical evacuation Yourself while this insurance shall reimburse You only Reasonable and Customary Charges.
- 5.9.3 Following completion of the Treatment and if medically able, the Insurer will also cover the cost of the return trip, at economy rates, for Your return to your Home Country.
- 5.9.4 Emergency Medical Evacuation will only be authorized when You is deemed fit to fly. If You refuse to be evacuated when declared medically fit to travel, any additional expenses incurred after such refusal shall be Your responsibility.
- 5.9.5 If the You are not declared medically fit to travel by the Policy Expiration Date, any additional expenses incurred after Policy Expiration Date shall be Your responsibility.

5.10 Additional Conditions Applicable under Return of Mortal Remains Benefit

- 5.10.1 In the event of death from an Accidental Injury or Illness, this Policy will provide coverage for: (i) the cost of transportation of Your body or ashes to Your Home Country, including all necessary documentation; or (ii) the cost of sending the urn to the Home Country.
- 5.10.2 This benefit is subject to the following limitations:
- Coverage is limited to expenses for embalming, a container legally appropriate for transportation, shipping costs and necessary government authorizations.
 - Funeral costs are not covered.
 - The original death certificate must be provided along with copies of any payment of cremation Services when a request for Reimbursement is made.
 - This benefit must be approved by the Assistance Service. Failure to utilize the Assistance Service to arrange for these Services will result in the denial of benefits.

For the purpose of the above table of losses, quadriplegia, paraplegia, hemiplegia, and uniplegia mean the complete and irreversible paralysis of relevant limbs; with regard to hands and feet, loss includes actual severance through and above the wrist or ankle joints; with regard to eyes, loss of sight means entire irrecoverable loss of sight; and, with regard to thumb and index finger, loss includes actual severance through or above the joint that meets the finger at the palm.

5.14 Baggage & Personal Effect Insurance when Travelling

5.14.1 In the event Your personal belongings are damaged or lost solely due to theft, robbery, assault, traffic Accident or transportation company mishandling while You are traveling to and from Your Host Country, we will pay You reimbursement up to the limit stated in Section 3 of the Table of Benefits, and subject to the conditions and exclusions specified elsewhere in this Policy.

5.14.2 When luggage/baggage damage or loss occurs due to transportation company's mishandling, the Insurer acts as a secondary insurance carrier. The primary coverage is provided by the transportation company. A claim must immediately be filed with the transportation company. The amount not reimbursed by the transportation company may then be claimed with the Insurer. If the transportation company denies Your claim based on the fact that You did not file a claim or that the claim was not filed in a timely manner, we will also deny Your claim since we are secondary to the transportation company

5.14.3 The reimbursement envisaged by this Article is available for:

- a. The loss or destruction of Baggage or Precious/Valuables which have been correctly checked in or entrusted to the carrier or entrusted to the tour operator during organised transport and transfers.
- b. Theft with forced entry of Baggage or Precious/Valuables from any locked and closed vehicle between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. (local time).
- c. In cases of theft, cover is available provided the Baggage and Precious/Valuables are either under Your direct supervision, in Your room or placed in a private locker.
- d. Precious objects are only covered against theft and only when carried on Your person or placed in a safe in Your room or in the hotel's safe.

The amount of reimbursement of costs of Valuables and Precious objects will be the value at the time of purchase minus a deduction corresponding to depreciation based on the age of the item and are subject to the limits indicated in the Table of Benefits. Please refer to the Appendix 1 for the Depreciation Table, however:

- If the item can be repaired at a lower cost, We will only cover repair costs.
- The original (at purchase) value of an object must be backed by such documents as a receipt or a bank/credit card statement or a warranty/guarantee certificate. Failure to submit documentation backing the original value would make Your claim invalid and the claim will be rejected.

5.14.4 Your duties in case the baggage is lost, stolen or damaged are:

- a. If Baggage is lost, stolen or damaged during handling by a carrier, transport company, authority or hotel, You must provide them with the details of the incident in writing.
- b. If Baggage is lost, stolen or damaged while entrusted to an airline, You must:
 - obtain a lost baggage report form (PIR) from the airline,
 - send the report of the incident by post to the airline within the time specified by the transport agents (please keep a copy thereof),
 - keep all transport tickets and registration labels in order to claim compensation.

- c. You must provide an original receipt or proof of ownership for objects to support Your claim. In the case of failure to comply with the above conditions, Your claim may be rejected or reimbursement can be reduced.
- 5.14.5 If all or some of the lost or stolen items are recovered at any time whatsoever, You must inform us immediately. If the items are recovered:
- before You received reimbursement from Us, You must reclaim the items. We will only be obliged to reimburse any damage actually sustained and any costs You have incurred, with our agreement, to recover the items;
 - after You received reimbursement from Us, You will have thirty days from the date of recovery to decide whether to reclaim or leave all or some of the recovered items. After this time, the items will become our property.
- 5.14.6 If You reclaim the items, the reimbursement will be revised based on the value of the items on the date of recovery and You must return any overpayment that You may have received.
- 5.14.7 If You learn that a person is in possession of the lost or stolen goods, You must inform us within eight days.

5.15 Exclusions Specific to the Lost, Stolen or Damaged Baggage Insurance

5.16 Baggage & Personal Effects Insurance when Travelling or Staying in the Host Family's House

In the event Your personal belongings are damaged or lost solely due to theft, robbery, assault, or traffic Accident while in Your host family's residence or property, we will pay up to the limits stated in Section 3 of the Table of Benefits, subject to conditions and exclusions specified below and elsewhere in this Policy:

- 5.16.1 the benefit is payable if Your host family's homeowners or automobile insurance carries a deductible or if Your belongings are not covered under such insurance.
- 5.16.2 If you are en route or are staying at a campus dormitory or hotel, only fire or water damage is reimbursed, since the primary theft insurance is provided by the hotel or dormitory facility.
- 5.16.3 In case of a robbery, You must immediately report the Loss to the police, transportation company, hotel, etc.
- 5.16.4 You must provide a copy of the report to the Assistance Service along with Your claim for reimbursement. Only the official theft/loss or police report will be accepted by the Assistance Service. It is Your responsibility to submit a comprehensive report to the police. This is mandatory in order to process Your claim. In filing a claim for property, You must also provide a detailed description of the property along with its date of purchase and value. Bills, invoices, or other proof of value are required. Stolen or damaged property will be valued allowing for depreciation at the time of the Loss. Please refer to the Depreciation Table in Appendix 1.
- 5.16.5 Only in case of an assault or theft will ID cards, driver's license, or passport be reimbursed. You must submit Your claim to the Assistance Service within 5 days from the date Your property was lost/stolen/damaged.

 - h. for damage due to moths and rodents.
 - i. for damage due to unsuitable packing.
 - j. for property confiscated by any governmental authority.
 - k. for loss of I.D. cards, driver's license, or passport (unless you are a victim of an assault or theft), or loss of local transportation tickets.
 - l. for damage caused by carried liquids.
 - m. for damage caused by an Accidental fall.
 - n. due to the negligence of the You including, but not limited to, bags left unattended in public areas (e.g., premises to which more than you have access).

6 Third Party Personal Liability and Legal Expenses

This cover applies if the Insured Person is not covered by any liability insurance taken out elsewhere.

6.1 Insured Event

This insurance is in force in the Host Country only. We reimburse, up to the amount indicated in Section 4 of the Table Of Benefits, the damage that You are legally obliged to reimburse according to the laws of Host Country in the event of bodily injury, property damage or financial losses caused to third parties in the course of Your private life by You, or by the persons for whom You are responsible, or by the things or animals in Your custody, as well as any material damage caused to an Object entrusted by Your host family and used during Your stay, or via Your practicing a dangerous sport listed and indicated as accepted by this coverage in Appendix 2, provided that the event giving rise to the damage occurred during the Trip while this insurance was in force.

6.1.1 Your obligation in case of an Insured Event

You are entitled to acknowledge or settle damage only based upon Our preliminary written consent (consent of the Insurer or that of the Assistance Service authorized by the Insurer).

- a. You are obligated to report each and every occurrence of damage to the respective competent authorities (e.g. police or firemen), if the circumstances under which the damage occurred give rise to a suspicion that a criminal activity was committed. You are also obligated to provide testimonies of witnesses and written statements of witnesses (including their first names, surnames, addresses and description of the case) and to have these facts incorporated in the official report by competent authorities.
- b. You are obligated to send Us the copy of the official report made by competent authorities as soon as possible in given circumstances.
- c. You are obligated to discuss with Us appointment of any legal services, to follow Our instructions and respect Our decision to appoint an attorney to represent Your interests.
- d. You are obligated to immediately provide Us with all necessary information and documents on the occurrence of the Insured Event (e.g., a police report, names and addresses of the injured persons or the witnesses and their written statements, proof of the amount of the damage incurred) as requested by Us.

6.1.2 Reimbursement

- a. In the event of an occurrence of an Insured Event, We will provide indemnification up to the amount stipulated in Section the Table of Benefits.
- b. The extent of indemnification is limited by the extent of the damage for which You are liable towards the aggrieved party.
- c. The extent of the damage shall be duly proved to Us.

6.2 Legal Expenses Abroad

Subject to Our prior consent, we will reimburse the legal expenses for the court cases occurred in the Country of Stay, in order to organise Your defence or Your recourse, such as investigation costs, costs of police reports, bailiff's reports, expert or technical fees, lawyer's fees and non-taxable costs. Penalties and/or fines imposed on You are excluded.

For defence: the costs of legal proceedings for Your defence when You are brought by a third Person before the criminal courts following an offence committed at the time of an event covered by the private liability Abroad cover.

For recourse: the costs of legal proceedings for You to seek recourse against a third Person when You has suffered damage, provided that the harmful event is covered under other sections of this Insurance Policy.

6.2.1 Specific Legal Expenses Abroad procedure

If legal action is brought against You, You will give Us all powers to manage the action and to exercise any recourse in front of the civil courts or to join Us to our defense and to exercise recourse on civil interests before the criminal courts. You must forward Us, upon request, any summons, writ, extrajudicial document and procedural document sent to You or served on You.

If You fail to fulfil these obligations, We will reimburse the injured third parties or their assigns, but We reserve the right to take action against You to recover the sums overpaid to the third parties as a result of your failure to co-operate with Us.

6.2.2 Settlement in the event of disagreement for Legal Expenses Abroad

In the event of disagreement over the merit of Your rights or over the measures to be taken to resolve the dispute, the parties can decide to appoint a conciliator, by mutual agreement or, failing that, have one appointed by the court within the jurisdiction of the victim's Domicile. The costs incurred will be paid by Us unless the court decides otherwise.

If, contrary to Our opinion or, where applicable, the conciliator's opinion, You decide to start litigation and obtain a more favorable solution than that was earlier proposed by Us or the conciliator, We will pay the costs of the legal proceedings, however, our overall reimbursement of these costs combined with other legal expenses covered, shall not exceed the limit specified in the Table of Benefits.

6.3 Settlement and acknowledgement of liability

No acknowledgement of liability or settlement, made without Our prior approval, is enforceable against Us. Similarly, admitting the materiality of a fact or performing a simple duty of assistance cannot be classed as acknowledgement of liability.

6.4 Making a claim

The Insured Person must submit the claim to the Assistance Service within ten (10) working days of becoming aware of the event giving rise of the claim.

6.5 Exclusions specific to the liability and legal expenses insurance

The following exclusions shall apply in addition to the General Exclusions (given in Article 8):

- a. damage caused to Your Family Members, to people employed by You under a contract or without a contract,

Unless otherwise is stipulated in the Individual Insurance Certificate or elsewhere in the insurance contract, no benefit shall be payable as a result of or in connection with the following:

1. Any Pre-Existing Condition(s);
2. Injury or acute illness which is not presented to the Assistance Service for payment within sixty (60) days of receiving Treatment;
3. Charges for Treatment which is not Medically Necessary;
4. Charges provided at no cost to You;
5. Charges for Treatment which exceeds Reasonable and Customary Charges;
6. Charges incurred for Surgery or Treatments which are Experimental/Investigational, or for research purposes;

For the purpose of this Exclusion, Experimental/Investigational means a drug, device or medical care or Treatment that is considered experimental/ investigational if:

- a. The drug or device cannot be lawfully marketed without approval of the Food and Drug Administration and approval for marketing has not been given at the time the drug or device is furnished; or has FDA approval but does not have evidence of effectiveness for the proposed use documented in peer reviewed articles in medical journals published in the United States.
- b. The informed consent document utilized with the drug, device, medical care, or Treatment states or indicates that the drug, device, medical care, or Treatment is part of a clinical trial, experimental phase, or investigational phase or if such a consent document is required by law.
- c. The drug, device, medical care or Treatment or the patient informed consent document utilized with the drug, device or medical care or Treatment was reviewed and approved by the treating facility's institutional review board or other body serving a similar function, or if federal or state law requires such review and approval.
- d. Reliable evidence shows that the drug, device or medical care or Treatment is the subject of ongoing Phase I or Phase II clinical trials, is the research, experimental study or investigational arm of ongoing Phase III clinical trials or is otherwise under study to determine its maximum tolerated dose, its toxicity, its safety, its efficacy, or its efficacy as compared with a standard means of treatment of diagnosis.
- e. Reliable evidence shows that the prevailing opinion among experts regarding the drug, device or medical care or treatment is that further studies or clinical trials are necessary to determine its maximum tolerated dose, its toxicity, its safety, its efficacy, or its efficacy as compared with a standard means of treatment of diagnosis.

For purposes of this definition, “reliable evidence” means published reports and articles in authoritative medical and scientific literature; written protocol or protocols by the treating facility studying substantially the same drug, device or medical care or Treatment; or the written informed consent used by the treating facility or other facility studying substantially the same drug, device or medical care or Treatment.

Assistance Service will make the determination if the drug, device, or medical care is Experimental/Investigational based on the above criteria. The Insurer will make the final determination as to whether a Service or Supply is Experimental/ Investigational.

8 Claims Administration Procedures

- 8.1 The insurance provided under this Policy shall be in excess of all other valid and collectible insurance or indemnity and shall apply only when such other benefits are exhausted.
- 8.2 Coverage available through another insurance policy providing medical expense benefits shall always be prior coverage to the coverage presented by this Policy. If there are no other valid and collectible benefits available from any other source, this insurance will pay the Covered Expenses up to the limits of this Policy, with the Insurer reserving the right to review and potentially subrogate with any undeclared coverage whether known or unknown to You.
- 8.3 We are not responsible for the quality of care received from any institution or individual. This Policy does not give You any claim, right or cause of action against us based on an act of omission or commission of a Hospital, Provider, Doctor or other provider of care or Service.
- 8.4 All claims are subject to Reasonable and Customary Charges as determined by Assistance Service and are processed in the order in which they are received by Assistance Service. In order for claims payment to be made, claims must be submitted in a form acceptable to Assistance Service.
- 8.5 Upon Your admission to the Hospital, the latter will inform the Assistance Service, who in turn, will verify Eligibility and the benefits provided under this Policy. The Hospital may submit a claim and will be paid directly by Us. You will be billed only for expenses that are not covered by this Policy. If the Hospital does not arrange for direct payment, You will be responsible to pay the Hospital and submit a claim for reimbursement.
- 8.6 All claims for reimbursement must be submitted by You or by Your legal representative to the Assistance Service no later than sixty (60) days from the date of Service. Copies of documents backing the claim are accepted as long as the integrity of the documents is not altered. However, We reserve the right to request original documents at our discretion.

If the complete claim is not received within sixty (60) days, the claim may be reduced or invalidated. However, the claim will not be reduced or invalidated if:

- a. it can be shown that it was not possible within reason to submit notice within the sixty (60) day period; and
 - b. it is further shown that notice was given as soon as possible.
- 8.7 You may request the claim form by contacting an Assistance Service at:

US Toll-Free Phone Line available 24/7: 1-888-387-0040; or

Email address: othclaims@dhig.net

All claims must be accompanied with the following:

- a. Claimant's name.
- b. Doctor's specialty.
- c. Detailed description of Service rendered (office visits, Surgery, etc.).
- d. Original itemized invoices with fees on Doctor/Hospital letterhead. Invoice must include patient's full name, date of birth, Diagnosis (type of Illness), date of the visit, Treatment type, Doctor's charges, and acceptable proof of payment (credit card receipt).
- e. Prescription medications must clearly provide the name of the patient, the price of the Drug, and prescription quantity. Copy of the Doctor's script is required.
- f. In the case of hospitalization, you must attach the Hospital medical notes or reports, and our Pre-Authorization provided to you. Please ensure that your invoice details the cost of private or semi-private room.
- g. In the case of death, a certified copy of the death certificate.

- 8.8 Upon receipt of proper and acceptable written proof of expenses incurred, the Assistance Service will:
- a. Pay covered benefits under this Policy; or
 - b. Notify You (or claimant on behalf of You), in writing, the reasons for nonpayment of the claim; or
 - c. Notify You (or claimant on behalf of You), in writing, that additional information is necessary for the review and/or payment of the claim within the terms of this Policy.

8.9 Physical Examination and Autopsy

When a claim is pending or while benefits are being paid, we have the right to have a Doctor of Our choice examine You as often as is reasonably necessary. We also have the right to request an autopsy in the case of death. We will pay the cost of the examination or autopsy.

8.10 Recovery of Overpayment

If benefits are overpaid, or paid in error, We have the right to recover the amount overpaid or paid in error by any of the following methods:

- a. A request for lump sum payment of the amount overpaid or paid in error; or
- b. Reduction of any proceeds payable under the Policy by the amount overpaid or paid in error.

8.11 Recovery of Benefits

We reserve the right to recover from a You any benefits We have paid to You for Injuries which are covered under:

- a. workers' compensation or similar statutory remedies available under law; or
- b. Any employer's liability Insurance.

It will be assumed that You are in receipt of such benefits unless You give Us proof such benefits have been denied to You.

8.12 Right of Reimbursement/Subrogation

If You recovers expenses for Illness or Injury that occurred due to the negligence of a Third Party, We have the right to reimbursement for all benefits We paid from any and all damages collected from the negligent Third Party for those same expenses whether by action at law, settlement, or compromise, by You, Your parents if You is a minor, or Your legal representative as a result of that Illness or Injury. We are assigned the right to recover from the negligent Third Party, or his or her insurer, to the extent of the benefits We paid for that Illness or Injury. You are required to furnish any information or assistance or provide any documents that We may reasonably require in order to exercise Our rights under this provision. This provision applies whether or not the Third Party admits liability.

8.13 Legal Actions

No legal action may be brought to recover on the Policy within sixty (60) days after a completed claim has been furnished. No legal action may be brought after one year from the time a completed claim is required to be furnished.

9 Duty of Disclosure

- 9.1 You must take proper care and concern when answering any questions asked by the Policyholder when entering into the Insurance Policy, at its renewals, etc., ensuring that any information provided is accurate and complete. You are liable to disclose to the Policyholder all circumstances known to You (including but not limited to the circumstances declared in the relevant insurance application form), which are significant for the assumption of the insurance risk under the Insurance Policy (i.e., all circumstances that are likely to have an influence on the Insurer's decision to accept the risk/on the conditions subject to which the risk may be accepted). When the Policyholder makes a decision about terms and conditions on which a person could be insured under the Insurance Policy, it fully relies on the information provided by You or by Your legal representative.
- 9.2 If the Policyholder establishes that, when entering into the Insurance Policy, at its renewal etc., You deliberately or recklessly provided the Policyholder with untrue and/or misleading and/or incomplete information, the Insurer will have the right to:
- treat such individual insurance void from the start;
 - decline all claims thereunder; and
 - retain the insurance premium received; and
 - demand reimbursement of all the Benefits as paid by the Policyholder under such Insurance Policy;
 - demand reimbursement of all other cost and damages as suffered by the Policyholder in relation thereto.

The Policyholder will notify You about the above-mentioned accordingly in writing or by e-mail.

- 9.3 If the Policyholder establishes that You have carelessly provided the Policyholder with untrue and/or misleading and/or incomplete information, and if no Claim has ever been reported from You, the Policyholder (at its sole discretion) will have the right to:
- treat such individual insurance void from the start, refuse to pay any Claim thereunder and return the Insurance Premium received; or
 - propose changes to the conditions of the Insurance policy with due regard to the accurate and complete information that has become available.

The Policyholder will notify You or Your legal representative in writing or by e-mail if (a) or (b) applies. If within 10 days as of receipt of the Policyholder's notice about applicability of point (b) You do not accept the Policyholder's proposal, the Policy shall automatically lapse in line with point (a).

- 9.4 If the Policyholder establishes that (when entering into the Insurance Policy, at its renewal etc.) that You have carelessly provided the Policyholder with untrue or misleading or incomplete information, and if a Claim has ever been reported to the Policyholder under such Insurance Policy, the Policyholder shall (in writing or per e-mail) propose to the changes to the conditions of the existing Insurance Policy to be made with due regard to accurate and complete information. If within 10 days since the Policyholder's respective notice You do not accept the Policyholder's proposal, the Insurance Policy shall lapse automatically, and the Insurer will have the right to:
- decline all Claims under such Insurance Policy;
 - retain the Insurance Premium received;
 - demand reimbursement of all the Benefits as paid by the Policyholder under such Insurance Policy;
 - demand reimbursement of all other cost/damages suffered by the Policyholder in relation thereto.
- 9.5 If You, or anyone acting on Your behalf, makes a false, fraudulent, or intentionally exaggerated Claim, or if fraudulent means/devices have been used by You or by anyone acting on Your behalf to obtain a Benefit under the Insurance Policy (for example, a loss that is fraudulently caused and/or exaggerated and/or supported by a fraudulent statement or other device), the Insurer:
- will not be liable to pay such Claim; and

- b. any amount paid by the Policyholder in respect of such Claim will become immediately due and owing to the Policyholder; and
- c. may by notice to You treat the Insurance Policy as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

If the Insurer exercises its right under point (c) above:

- it shall not be liable to You in respect of a relevant event occurring after the time of the fraudulent act. A relevant event is whatever gives rise to the Insurer's liability under the Insurance Policy (such as the occurrence of a loss, the making of a Claim, or the notification of a potential Claim); and
- it need not return any of the Insurance Premium paid.

10 Notice of Privacy Practices

10.1 For the purpose of entering into, implementing, and renewing the Policy, the Insurer and the Policyholder will need the Personal data of persons to be insured, Insured Persons, and Dependents. Any Personal data requested will be adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary. or from death certificates; medical and medical Claims history; details of physical and psychological health or medical conditions; etc.;

r. other Personal data that may be shared by the data subject/Policyholder.

Personal data to be processed under the Policy shall be obtained directly from data subjects or indirectly from third parties (family members and representatives, Policyholder, insurance intermediaries, Doctors, Providers, state institutions, and other third parties as authorized to disclose such Personal data).

- 10.3 Full information about how Personal data shall be processed under the Policy is provided in the Privacy Policy, which can be viewed by clicking on the site terms and conditions at the website www.dhig.net.
- 10.4 The Controller of Personal data of the persons to be insured, Persons Insured and Dependents shall be the Insurer. The contact details of the Insurer are as indicated in the Policy.
- 10.5 The Policyholder is the processor of Personal data as appointed by the Insurer. The Policyholder is entitled to engage other processors as may be necessary for Processing of Personal data for the purposes as set in paragraph 10.8 of these Rules.
- 10.6 For the purposes as set in paragraph 10.8 of the Rules, the Personal data may be disclosed to Reinsurers, co-insurers, Medical Consultants, the Assistance Service, other Providers, technical consultants, insurance administration service providers, lawyers, auditors, financial and tax related advisors, banks, and fraud investigators, as well as supervising state authorities.
- 10.7 The contact of the data protection officer: dpo@dhig.net.
- 10.8 The Personal data is collected by the Policyholder or on its behalf and may be used by the Policyholder and/or persons engaged by it (when acting under the Policyholder's instructions) for the purposes of the execution and administration of the Policy (including but not limited to Underwriting and Claims handling), administration of debt recoveries, insurance mediation, research or for statistical purposes, fraud prevention, meeting legal obligations, and arranging redistribution of the insurance risk (for arranging reinsurance and/or co-insurance).
- 10.9 Legal grounds for Processing of Personal data under the Policy may be as follows:
- a. Processing is necessary for the performance of the Policy — this shall include such activities as Underwriting, providing the Policyholder with offers/renewal offers/ information about quotation, assessing individual insurance application or health questionnaire completed by the Insured Person/Dependents/ persons to be insured, managing, and administrating the Policy, handling Claims, and providing other services to the Insured Persons and Dependents.
 - b. consent of the data subject/explicit consent of the data subject — this will be relied on (for instance) for Personal data Processing activities related to Processing of health-related Personal data.
 - c. Processing is necessary for the compliance with legal obligations this will be relied on (for instance) when the Insurer has a legal or regulatory obligation to use such personal information;
 - d. Processing is necessary in order to protect vital interests of the data subject or another natural person,
 - e. Processing is necessary for the purpose of legitimate interests — this will be relied on (for instance): (a) when the Insurer has an appropriate business need to process Personal data and such business need does not cause harm to the Insured Person/Dependent. The Insurer will rely on this for activities such as maintaining its business records, developing, improving its insurance products and services related thereto, and providing information about its products and services to the Policyholder and to the Insured Persons; or (b) when the Insurer/the Policyholder needs to use such personal information to establish, exercise or defend Insurer's/Policyholder's legal rights. The Insurer/Policyholder will not use its legitimate interest to process data subject's Personal data when data subject's interests, rights, and freedoms take priority.

- 10.10 Personal data may be processed both inside and outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) by the parties specified in paragraph 10.6 above, subject always to contractual restrictions regarding confidentiality and security in line with applicable data protection laws and regulations. When transferring Personal data outside EEA, appropriate safeguards for such data transfer (for example, standard data protection clauses as approved by the European Commission) as required by applicable laws shall be ensured. Personal data will not be disclosed to parties who are not authorized to process them. The Policyholder will not use personal information or pass it on to any other person for the purposes of marketing further products or services without an explicit consent of the data subject.
- 10.11 Where permitted by applicable law or regulation, the data subject shall have the following rights:
- a. to access his/her Personal data to learn the origin of the data, the purposes and ends of the Processing, the details of the data controller(s), the data processor(s), and the parties to whom the data may be disclosed;
 - b. to withdraw his/her given consent at any time where his/her Personal data is processed based on such a consent;
 - c. to update or correct his/her Personal data so that it is always accurate;
 - d. to delete his/her Personal data from the records if it is no longer needed for the purposes indicated above, subject to regulatory Personal data retention requirements;
 - e. to restrict the Processing of his/her Personal data in certain circumstances, for example where the data subject has contested the accuracy of his/her Personal data, for the period enabling verifying its accuracy;
 - f. to obtain his/her Personal data in an electronic format;
 - g. to exercise the right to data portability;
 - h. to file to the relevant data privacy authority.

The data subject may exercise his/her rights by contacting the Policyholder at data@dhig.net, while providing his/her name, Policy number, the Policyholder, e-mail address, and the purpose of the request. Where permitted by applicable law or regulation, the data subject shall have the right to object to Processing request stopping Processing of his/her Personal data under the Policy. Under such circumstances, the Processing of Personal data will be stopped, unless permitted by applicable laws and regulations.

- 10.12 The Personal data collected under the Policy will be retained for a period of time equal to the duration of relevant Policy Period (including any renewals thereof) and for the following 10 years from the date the Policy expires, save for cases where a longer retention period is required for possible disputes, requests of the competent authorities or pursuant to the applicable laws. Once the retention period is over the data will be deleted or anonymized.
- 10.13 In order to prevent or detect fraud and money laundering, the Policyholder may check personal details with fraud prevention agencies and sanction websites, who may record a search. Searches may also be made against other insurers' databases. If fraud is suspected, information will be shared with those insurers. Other users of the fraud prevention agencies may use this information in their own decision-making processes.
- 10.14 The Policyholder may also conduct credit reference checks in certain circumstances. Further details can be found in our full Privacy Policy explaining how the information held by fraud prevention agencies may be used.

The Policyholder may use automated tools with decision-making to assess individual application for insurance or individual health questionnaire and for Claims handling processes. If the Insured Person objects to an automated decision, the Policyholder may not be able to offer the insurance quotation.

11 Complaints

- 11.1 Should the Insured Person have questions or complaints (including but not limiting to complaints regarding the Assistance Service or Providers as engaged by the Policyholder), he/she may firstly call the helpline phone as set in the Policy. If the question/complaint is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Insured Person, then he/she is entitled to contact the Policyholder per e-mail: complaints@dhig.net. The Policyholder will handle the complaint as soon as practicably possible and present the complaining person with an answer within a reasonable period of time from the moment of receipt of a complaint, but not later than 60 calendar days.
